An efficient method for determining a price is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already purchased an book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a gross sales web page for the new guide, however don't include a worth on that page. Another strategy is to test out prices by making a variety of duplicate sales pages with different prices on every page. Ensure your gross sales copy is precisely the same on every web page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then determine for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and gross sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum value is.
